

LOVE

Love works in strange ways,
Taking up so many beautiful days,
But in some case,
Love is filled with all kinds of craze.

Love is always there to amaze,
Bringing to people all those wonderful days,
And when your heart is in a race,
Love can bring it back to its normal pace.

BROKEN

Being at home alone
Isn't the hardest thing.
But trying to move on
Is harder than you think.

Dreaming about the day
When your eyes will tell me that I'm
The reason you don't go away,
The dream of your deepest desire.

Writing this song makes me realize
How much you mean to me
But the thing that is killing me inside
Is knowing you don't feel the same.

Still at the end
I'm writing this song alone,
Trying not to pretend or worry
That I'm scared because you're gone.
